

Leadership Styles

What style of leadership describes you?? Circle 2 or 3 that you think best fit you.

- 1) Visionary: casts and carries the vision.
- 2) Directional: uncanny ability to choose the right path at a critical intersection.
- 3) Strategic: can take a vision and break it down into sequential, achievable steps.
- 4) Managerial: has the ability to organize people, processes and resources to achieve a mission.
- 5) Motivational: has the ability to keep teammates fired up. They dream of new ways to inspire.
- 6) Shepherding: builds a team slowly, loves them deeply, nurtures them gently, and prays for them diligently. The community dynamics are what matters the most.
- 7) Team-builder: has insight to successfully find and develop the right people with ability, character and chemistry.
- 8) Entrepreneurial: they function optimally in start-up mode.
- 9) Reengineering: work best in turn-around situations. Love to tune-up, patch-up and revitalize hurting ministries.
- 10) Bridge-building: Can bring together under a leadership structure a wide range of groups.
